RULING ON ENTITLEMENT¹

On October 15, 2020, Wendy Riva filed a petition for compensation under the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program, 42 U.S.C. §300aa-10, *et seq.*² (the “Vaccine Act”). Petitioner alleges that she suffered Guillain-Barré Syndrome (“GBS”) caused by the influenza vaccine she received on January 28, 2020. Petition at 1, ¶ 37. Petitioner further alleges that she continues to suffer the residual effects of her GBS, more than six months after vaccination, and that neither she nor any other party has filed a civil case or received compensation for her GBS. Id. at ¶¶ 38-40. The case was assigned to the Special Processing Unit of the Office of Special Masters.

On July 9, 2021, Respondent filed his Rule 4(c) report in which he concedes that Petitioner is entitled to compensation in this case. Respondent’s Rule 4(c) Report at 1.

² National Childhood Vaccine Injury Act of 1986, Pub. L. No. 99-660, 100 Stat. 3755. Hereinafter, for ease of citation, all “§” references to the Vaccine Act will be to the pertinent subparagraph of 42 U.S.C. § 300aa (2012).

Specifically, Respondent states “[i]t is [his] position that [P]etitioner has satisfied the criteria set forth in the revised Vaccine Injury Table (“Table”) and the Qualifications and Aids to Interpretation (“QAI”).” Id. at 4.

In view of Respondent’s position and the evidence of record, I find that Petitioner is entitled to compensation.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
